

Asia – Dictatorship in North Korea

WHAT ARE WE LEARNING?

What is dictatorship?
Where is N.Korea and what is life like there?

WHAT WILL SUCCESS LOOK LIKE?

I'll be able to describe what life is like in N.Korea?

Silent Study Starter:

Read the North Korea silent reading sheet and be ready to share at least one interesting fact.

Where is N.Korea and what is life like there?

- Watch this clip and make a mind map of at least three notes about life as a child in North Korea.

Escape Stories #1

Watch the video and answer the questions

1. How many escape NK every year?
2. Who escapes?
3. What happens if the Chinese police catch you?
4. Why was the journey through China so difficult?
5. What did they have to eat on they way?
6. Name one rule of life in NK.
7. Why does the NK government have so many rules?
8. Name one thing the NK government can't control
9. What new things do refugees need to learn?
10. Name a challenge NK refugees face in South Korea.

Escapes Stories #2

- Watch the video clip on Jun and his escape story.
1. Discuss how would your life be different if you had no internet access?
 2. Think about how important having free access to information is, what do you think you would do if you were Jun with access to the internet for the first time.
 3. Decide: would you limit Jun's exposure to the internet or give him free access when he arrives?
 4. Extension: What does Jun mean by 'taking responsibility'?

Creative Task

Make a UK versus N.Korea comparison poster/infographic. It should summarize:

1. The difficulties of life in N.Korea

2. The challenges of running away

3. The difficulties of arrival in South Korea

HAS OUR LEARNING BEEN SUCCESSFUL?

Plenary:
Editing.

- Carefully proof read your work and check you have used capital letters accurately.
- For ALL of your capital letters put a box around them.
- This includes any capital letters that you have missed.
- Do not correct your work, only put the box around them.

Capital Checklist

Capital letters are needed:

- ✓ At the start of sentences.
- ✓ For names.
- ✓ For places.
- ✓ Every time you write 'I' (as in I am).

Words we have used today that definitely need capital letters are:

- Iran

Additional Silent Starters

- Discuss with your neighbour – prioritise which human write is most important? Give a reason.
- Write a headline on your Mini white board that summarizes last lesson
- Write one word on your mini-white board that makes you think of a question from last lesson. The rest of the class will guess the question.